use another birth control method (such as condoms or a spermicide) until you check with your healthcare provider.

its membership also includes composters, following the merger of the association for organics recycling (formerly the composting association) in 2013